Classical Guitarist Bill Jones to Perform at Central Library

SAN DIEGO – The final concert of the 2012 Winter/Spring Concert Series of the City of San Diego Public Library will take place on Sunday, May 6, 2012 with a solo recital by classical guitarist Bill Jones. The FREE program will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the third floor auditorium of the Central Library, 820 E St., in downtown San Diego.

Details about the music to be performed will be announced at a later date.

An up and coming musical presence in Southern California, Bill Jones has been performing and teaching guitar for over 15 years. Since 2004 he has studied classical guitar very closely with the world renowned Romero family and in 2009 he received his Master of Music degree from SDSU with a specialization in Classical Guitar Performance. Mr. Jones performs a variety of styles and has performed at the L.A. Music Awards, the Sundance Film Festival, and at festivals throughout Europe. In addition to performing, Mr. Jones has composed and recorded music for television commercials aired on A&E and Spike T.V., produced award winning CDs, and premiered works for solo guitar, guitar and voice, and guitar quartet. He currently serves as Artist-in-Residence at Canyon Crest Academy, where his knowledge and experience are put to use working with small ensembles. Mr. Jones also actively participates in outreach programs that engage and share the wonders of music with at-risk youths.
